Dear Hobby;

Why haven't I heard from you in so long? I sent you a wire Monday. I didn't know school was postponed a week. So if you haven't already sent the wire when you receive this letter, don't send it till this Friday, Sept. 13. I hope all is well. The war is almost over, in about 10 days we start home to stay.

So if I don't hear from you today, Tuesday, I'll expect the with something Friday. If you have already sent it, I'll come on home when I receive it. So get the board out, put it on signboards, and I'll see you soon!

Love,
Harold
